Mr Roynon felt very proud showing two guests around the school this week. As part of Penwith Education Trust initiative to share good practice and to moderate head teacher's judgements about the quality of teaching and learning in their schools. Mr Roynon was joined by Bill Marshall of Humphrey Davy School and Jenny Rainbow from Marazion and visited classes, talked to children about their learning and looked through books. The visitors saw lots of good and outstanding practice. The children and staff did the school proud.

Thank you to Bex for the fantastic Indian lunch we enjoyed on Thursday this week. Schooner Class have the challenge of trying to make something as tasty. They have been busy calculating the shopping list and costs for the parents curry lunch taking place on Thursday, 10th December. This has involved plenty of multiplying, dividing and adding skills. If you have not got your ticket then please call into the school office.
